Volume 02—2010

A Publication of the Arkansas Board of Public Accountancy

SEPTEMBER 2010 ISSUE

Announcing Jimmy Corley, Executive Director of State Board

Jimmy Corley has been selected by the Arkansas State Board of Public Accountancy as its new Executive Director. Mrs. Leveta Ray has retired as Executive Director, after more than 12 years of service with the ASBPA.

Jimmy graduated from the University of Central Arkansas in 2000 and earned his CPA license in 2001. He began in his professional career in public accounting, working for Arthur Andersen and Pricewaterhouse-Coopers for 3 and a half years. Since that time Jimmy has spent 6 years in private industry accounting, working in the telecommunications and staffing industries.

Jimmy and his wife Andrea reside in Little Rock. His hobbies include hunting and fishing as well as cheering on the Razorbacks in any sport.

Please welcome Jimmy as the Executive Director for the Arkansas State Board of Public Accountancy!

Jimmy Corley, CPA

New CPA Exam Fees Effective August 21

The CPA Exam fees have changed beginning August 21, 2010. If you are applying to take any section of the CPA Exam, please be aware that all applications sent to the Board beginning August 21, 2010 will use the new fee schedule. Please print a new copy of the CPA Application Form from our website to be assured of the correct amount to send with your application.

2010 Continuing Education

Per Board Rule 13, in order to renew a license, each licensee with an active license to practice public accountancy in the state of Arkansas must have completed acceptable continuing education, except as otherwise provided in Section 13.2(b), in the amount of 120 hours within 36 months or 40 hours within 12 months immediately preceding January 1 of the year for which the license is renewed.

The Board would like to remind all licensees that are required to take continuing professional education (CPE) to obtain their CPE throughout the year, and not wait until the last minute. Failure to obtain the required CPE by December 31st can result in a fine/penalty by the Board. Please review Board Rule 13 for the specific categories in which the CPE must be obtained.

New Board Officers Elected

At the June 27, 2008 ASBPA Board Meeting, new officers were elected for the July 2010—June 2011 fiscal year.

The new officers are:

President - Gary Kelly, CPA

Secretary - Dale Coy, CPA

Treasurer - Gene Cogbill, CPA

Congratulations to our new officers!

Thank You To Leveta Ray

The Arkansas State Board of Public Accountancy would like to take a moment to thank Leveta Ray for 12 years of dedicated service as the Executive Director and wish her well in her retirement. Thank you!!

2011 Renewals will begin mid-November

License renewals will be available online again this year, starting in mid-November. Be watching for reminders and the official notification for specific time of the renewal process. Keep in mind, all CPE for 2010 for the 2011 license renewal must be completed by December 31, 2010.

Quality Review Surveys

The 2010 Quality Review Surveys are past due to be in the ASBPA Board office. It is mandatory to respond to a Quality Review Survey. For those who have yet to respond, final notices have been mailed. Failure to respond to the Quality Review Survey process could result in a penalty for failure to respond to Board communications per Board Rule 409 of the Professional Code of Professional Standards.

We appreciate our volunteer CPAs who came into the Board offices to review the QR reports. Your time and dedication is a tribute to the fine professionals in the field of public accounting. Thank you!

Results of the Quality Review surveys will be available at a later date. We are still processing the reviewer's reports and finalizing the lists.
